

I support NJ's Do Not Call Registry as it stands. I refuse to do business with any telemarketer simply because they invade my time and space. I don't care if I have done business with them in the past. I know what business I want to do, and am capable of making my own calls. Telemarketers are simply harassing me in my home. I wish you would remove the charities exemption. I do not want any of these calls.